

SUCCESSFULLY SWAPPING A LONDON TOWNHOME FOR AN ELEGANT GREENWICH ESTATE REQUIRED EXTENSIVE RENOVATIONS AND UPDATED INTERIORS FOR 21ST-CENTURY LIVING

TOP RIGHT AND BOTTOM RIGHT PHOTOGRAPHY

Trading PLACES

BY MINDY PANTIEL | PHOTOGRAPHS BY ROBERT BENSON PHOTOGRAPHY

Graceful Living (CLOCKWISE FROM LEFT) Architect Charles Hilton refreshed the façade of the home with new Tischler und Sohn windows, a slate roof by Evergreen Slate and Kingsland shutters. Lindsay Burn of Lindsay Burn Landscape Design further enhanced the architecture with mounded boxwoods and by filling a pair of Pennoyer Newman planters flanking the front door with ball Buxus topiaries, snowflake Bacopa and variegated Vinca major. See Resources.