

WHAT'S NEW

CLEAR BLUE SKY

Inspired by a landscape photograph, Sheila Johnson designed the Cerulean Sky luxury Italian-made digital print scarf, an ideal accessory for a breezy spring day. The image of an intricate iron gate contrasts brilliantly against the blue backdrop of a morning sky. $475, Sheila Johnson collection, available at Urban Zen, NYC, 212-206-3999, urbanzen.com, sheilajohnsoncollection.com.

GREEN SCREEN

Create a tranquil space indoors or outdoors with a multifaceted garden partition, the Green divider by Jean-Marie Massaud. The harmonious design includes eight ceramic pots and an asymmetrical weave of extra-wide fiber that serves as a lattice for climbing plants. $2,200, Dedon, NYC, 212-334-3345, through Lillian August, Norwalk, 203-847-3314, lillianaugust.com, dedon.us.

THROUGH THE GRAPEVINE

Cast from an antique that once graced the lawns of a private estate, the stone resin Grapevine wall basket brings a piece of history to today's garden. Plant flowers inside to achieve a traditional look, or for the effect of graceful elegance, mount to a wall and fill with cascading vines. $900, Penroyer Newman (I), NYDC, 212-839-0500, penroyernewman.com.

IVY LEAGUE

Classic summer menswear inspired this fresh, vibrant fabric collection. Transfer the distinct look of khakis and cabana-stripe shirts to Oxford cloth upholstery and cushions for a well-dressed patio or poolside terrace. Call for pricing, Link Outdoor, through Hines & Co. (I), D&D, 212-754-5880, linkdesignsolutions.com. —Morgan Dancy