

On the terrace, which overlooks Gramercy Park, the chaise longue and dining chairs are by Richard Schultz for Knoll, and the landscape design and built-in banquette are by Gunn Landscape Architecture. LEFT, FROM TOP: The entry features a resin wall sculpture by Djordje Ozbolt and a mixed-media work by Fred Tomaselli; the vintage ottoman is Scandinavian, and the floor is travertine. A view from the dining area to the terrace; the dining chairs are upholstered in a Holland & Sherry leather. For details, see Resources.
