

OUR FINDS

Gift Guide

Genius!
The tool belt
detaches.

A durable denim-and-leather apron for the gardener or flower designer in your life. By Cold Picnic for Emily Thompson Flowers, $130, emilythompsonflowers.com.

Just what tired hands ordered: a soothing all-natural hand salve, a cooling aloe mist, and an exfoliating soap. Dear Gardener set, $32, farmaesthetics.com.

Enjoy the view from the porch while listening to the tinkling bell of this Aura brass bell chime, made by hand in Seattle. $95, ladiesandgentlemenstudio.com.

GARDEN

The gifts on this page are sure to delight—whether for a plant lover, flower fanatic, or dig-in-the-dirt gardener.

These flower pockets by ceramicist Yuka Uchida are like mini vases for a wall. $25 each, ovoceramics.com.

This Vermont-made earthenware Christmas-tree ornament with images of mushrooms has the exquisite detail of a botanical print. $28, laurazindel.com.

This shallow handwoven 18-by-14-inch basket will transport clippings from garden to table. $117, hillsdalegeneralstore.com.

Just the right size to store floral-arranging tools, this leather Tool Bag #2 is stitched by hand and gets better with age. In Russet Harness, $380, etwasbags.com.

Select some favorite vegetable and flower seeds from Hudson Valley Seed Library to give in a porcelain berry bowl. Make-Your-Own Seedy Gift Basket kit, from $24, seedlibrary.org.

Plant IDs
that won't wear off in the rain.

Identify your treasured rarities with these brass plant markers, which come with two-inch aluminum tags and a pencil. $19 for 8, clydeoak.com.

This elegant, heirloom-quality 28-inch-wide stone-and-resin birdbath will stand season after season, developing a nice patina. Bermuda Shell, $650, pennoyernewman.com.